

ROLL CALL AGREEMENT

This agreement concerns the production of a High Definition feature length movie entitled "Roll Call" It's agreed that _____ are going to work together to make this film. It is understood that principal photography may take up to six months to complete and that the post production may take as much as 6 months to complete.

William Morroni, Al Burke, Dan McDermott and _____

It is understood that _____ has Agreed to work on this production as _____ and

Will be paid _____ dollars per day, to be deferred until after the production has been sold. It is further understood that the deferred salary will be paid after the costs of production and any investors have been paid off and before any points are paid out. Naturally all records and books will be available for perusal. It is understood that distribution companies often take years to pay out the agreed on sales price of a film and further, it is understood that after the costs of production have been Paid _____ will get a fair share of each installment paid by the distribution company, that share being calculated against all other participants in this production. It is understood that all payments will made on a schedule to be determined by the distribution company.

It is understood that this agreement is void if an investor is found and salaries are paid up front.

It is understood that all who agree to this will stay with the production until it is completed or they are no longer needed which ever comes first.

It is understood that all disagreements will be settled by arbitration using the following formula. The complaining party will pick a restaurant. The other party will select any person in the restaurant to arbitrate the matter. The randomly selected arbitrators' decision is binding and final. The winning party buys lunch.

_____ Date _____

_____ Date _____